Edmiston has announced that is basing its Caribbean operations in St Barths effective December 2016.

This island has become a true superyacht hub, with the world-famous Bucket regatta just one of its many nautical highlights.

Dotted with quiet anchorages, St Barths' is a yachting destination, with the nearby islands of Anguilla, Nevis, St Martins, and Saint Kitts, adding to the attraction.

On the island itself, the list of bars, restaurants and hotels are also part of the social and friendly environment of the island.

Edmiston has long been involved in the culture and lifestyle of St Barths, from entering teams into regattas to arranging charters, so it was only natural to make our relationship with the island a little more permanent.

As well as being on hand to serve its clients and charter fleet, Edmiston is also supporting the Gustavia Yacht Club.

Positioned in the heart of the Port, the recently refurbished club is now actively looking for new members.

Edmiston specialises in the sales, charter, management and new construction yachts.
