Dan Hughes joins company as chief operating officer

Camper & Nicholson's Marinas has announced a new role within the company with the appointment of Dan Hughes as chief operating officer (COO).

Hughes will be directly responsible for the day-to-day management and operational aspects within the C&NM portfolio. He will continue to provide advice and support to C&N's consultancy clients, implementing and monitoring management contracts and supporting the colleagues within C&NM's joint venture in Asia, Camper & Nicholson's First Eastern.

Hughes will also further assist the C&NM Board and Executive Committee in seeking new investment and development opportunities at principal marina locations on behalf of the group.

Hughes has more than 25 years of direct marina management experience working with some of the most established marinas throughout the UK and worldwide. He also sits on the Board of the Global Marina Institute and is the current chairman of the European Certificated Marina Managers (CMM) Group.

Since 2012, Hughes has been directly involved in over 45 projects around the world including the refurbishment and redevelopment of St Katharine Docks in London, UK.

Clive Whiley, CEO, Camper & Nicholson's Marinas, says: "We are delighted to announce the appointment of Dan Hughes as COO. The Camper & Nicholson's Marinas business has seen significant improvement with a Compound Annual Growth Rate of 13% in the
